PLATE GLASS MAKES GOOD FOR HIS NEW OWNER AT FIRST ASKING.

Beats Good Opposition in Muddy Going at Pimlico First Sight Scores for Torontonian at Good Odds Brawny Carries Schorr Colors to Victory.

Baltimore, Md., May 7.—Racing at Pimlico today was under decidedly disagreeable conditions. A steady rain fell all afternoon and the track was a sea of mud and slush. Considering the downpour of the past two days, the footing was in remarkably good condition and the change in the going cut ittle figure with form calculations, the afternoon's results showing four of the seven favorites first at the finish. Scratches were numerous, but this was to be expected, and enough were left in to make interesting contests. Robert Davies of Toronto took two of the purses, one with Plate Glass and another with the two-year-old First Sight. Plate Glass beat a band of good mud runners in his race, the third on the card, a handicap at six furlongs, in which he was asked to carry 126 pounds. It was the horse's first 'race in Mr. Davies' colors, and a rumor that he was not partial to the going was responsible for his people obtaining liberal odds. Smart stable support, however, sent Plate Glass to the post a well-backed favorite at 2 to 1. In the early running Cherry Seed and Spellbound furnished strong opposition, keeping pace with Plate Glass to the stretch turn, where Bob R. moved up with a challenge. In the final furlong, Plate Glass easily disposed of his opposition.

First Sight looked best on performances of those named in the fifth race, but one of those occasional wild tips was circulated on the Whitney entry and the Davies connections again secured liberal odds about their entry. First Sight going to the post at 7 to 1. There was never anything to the race but First Sight. In the run to the far turn, Amburst was a keen factor, with First Sight running weil is hand. In rounding the turn for home, the Davies colt drew into an easy lead, which he retained without special effort to the end, where he led Moncacy by a couple of lengths.

Brawny, the Hamburg colt that John W. Schorr recently purchased from Harry Payne Whitney, made his maiden effort this afternoon and showed himself a youngster of promise. Brawny displeyed kee last night. It is Mr. Schort's intention to remain here until Tuesday next, when he will motor to To ronto.

The Glenmore Steeplechase, one of the annual fixtures of Pimlico's spring meetings and the afternoon's feature, proved easy for J. W. Fyre. The conditions called for a journey at two miles and a quarter. Supplement, which carried H. S. Page's colors, ran a good race to the thirteenth jump, where he fell. J. W. Fyre was ridden by a professional today, Bowser being substituted in place of Mr. T. Wright, who rode the horse in his previous start.

Willie Martin, who is building up his stable preparatory to shipping to Canada, purchased Mediator this afternoon from J. Howard Lewis.

S. Sottle, one of the stockholders in the Palmetto Park track at Charleston, and an enthusiastic racegoer, was a visitor at Pimlico this afternoon. He will remain for a few days before returning to South Carolina.

C. T. Patterson has arranged to leave for Woodbine with the Davies horses on Sunday. Several other owners will ship to Toronto during the early part of the coming week.

The funeral of Edward Cavanaugh, well known to race-goers on the western circuit, who died on Sunday, was held this morning. The interment was in St. Peter's cemetery. The deceased was consistent of the part of the worm hook nublication some few years

LEXINGTON'S NEW GRANDSTAND RULE.

LEXINGTON'S NEW GRANDSTAND RULE.

The highly esteemed gentlemen who give and control the racing at Lexington have essayed a large contract. This is no less than the formidable undertaking of endeavoring to force their Kentucky patrons, to say nothing of those from foreign pacts, to keep quietly in their seats as the horses come thundering down the homestretch in exciting struggles to reach the winning mark first. One reflection is that if the Kentucky Colonels, Majors and other dignitaries who for generations past have enjoyed the privilege of standing on the chairs and other recipins of vantage in the grandstand to whoop it up for the horses representing their hopes and cash invested, may regard such an invasion of their traditional cusioms as an indignity to be resented by staying away from the track. It is not on record with a single exception that on any race track in this country have people kept their seats while a race of doubtful result was in progress through the homestretch. That exception was in the long ago, when John Morrissey ruled the racing at Saratoga. He ordered that people should keep their seats while racing was in progress and they did. It was not because of the presence of officers but because John and his awe inspiring fists were always in conspicuous oversight in the grandstand while a race was going on. Anyone who desired to make unseemly noises and movements stayed away from the grandnoises and movements stayed away from the grandron is a fusey invasion of the rights of those who pay at the gate in support of racing.

TRAINING GOSSIP FROM LOUISVILLE.

Track Still Muddy and Only Slow Trials Recorded-Aubuchon Getting Ready to Ride Again.

Louisville, Ky., May 7.—Any number of horses which worked at the Downs today were merely cantered, preparatory to longer trials tomorrow, when the going will be much improved. Those that were out today did their work around the "dogs," which explains the rather slow time recorded. George, J. Long's Derby candidate, Free Lance, was given a half mile move preparatory for a good work tomorrow. He went the distance in :53%, covering the first eighth in :13%, the quarter in :27 and three eighths in :33%. He worked as if he did not object to running in the mud, but at the same time as if he would prefer a dry track. In appearance he looked even better than on Sunday, when he worked his sensational mile that has made him the talk of all the trainers at the Downs. Other works were: Armor—Three-eighths in 42.
Bay of Pleasure—Three-quarters in 1:14, cantering.

Vanker—Quarter mile in 29, cantering.

W. G. Yanke arrived from Lexington with the horses he took there to race and several that have been resting there since early winter and last fall. The string consists of Round the World, Quartermaster, Flying Feet, Bashful Betty, B Airy and several maiden three-year-olds, one of which is a brother to Raleigh P. D. With the Yanke string came J. R. Wainwright's Royal Captive, which pulled up lame a few days ago.

Capt. W. H. Fenchler and his brother, Fred Fenchler, arrived here today from El Paso for the running of the Kentucky Derby, and they will likely remain here throughout the meeting. Captain Fenchler is a steward at the Juarez track.

Henderson & Hogan's filly, Winning Widow, had a narrow escape from injury at the Downs this morning. She was cantering along briskly and for an instant got the better of her rider. At the same time R. F. Carman's Coy Lad was being led to a pony on the backstretch. Winning Widow cut the pony and Coy Lad apart, but all the horses in the mixup escaped injury.

Allen. Aubuchon, a former crack rider, who since his suspension several years ago at Cakland Celmixup escaped injury.

Allen. Aubuchon, a former crack rider, who since his suspension several years ago at Oakland, Cal., has been in the employ of Wayne O. Joplin, exercising his horses, has at last been reinstated and the Kentucky State Racing Commission has granted him a license to ride. He is now preparing himself to accept mounts. Aubuchon was for a long time connected with the stable of S. C. Hildreth and rode many winners for that turfman.

Eagle Eye, a promising three-year-old in George J. Long's stable, has been thrown out of training for a while owing to an abscess which has formed on his jaw. The colt had a fever today, but the veterinarian attending him thinks his allment is nothing serious.

veterinarian attending him thinks his ailment is nothing serious.

Irvin Simons, a prominent theatrical manager of this city, has authorized Louis Tauber to collect for him several horses good enough to win races on the Kentucky tracks and that trainer is now on the lookout for anything of promise that he can buy. The string, when gotten together, will be trained by Mr. Tauber.

The Kentucky Derby winner of 1900 Stone Street.

The string, when gotten together, will be trained by Mr. Tauber.

The Kentucky Derby winner of 1909, Stone Street, is still in training at the Latonia track, and according to information received at the Downs, is working well. His owner, C. E. Hamilton, has also in training the sprinter, Goldproof, and he believes he will race again. Goldproof is now nine years old and since he has been off the turf, the Hamilton family have been driving him to a buggy and in other ways using him in an endeavor to make his legs sound. This noted gelding won the Inaugural scramble at the Downs in 1909, the same day that Stone Street won the Derby for Mr. Hamilton. They were then both trained by the late John Hall.

The unbeaten Hawthorn was the object of great attention today at the Downs, when trainer W. S. Trevey brought him out to do his first work since his arrival from Lexington. The great gelding never looked better and after a slow gallop of a mile and a half, kicked at everything in sight as he was led through the gate to his stable. He gave no indications of having had a race recently and was as playful as a colt running in a field or pasture.

NIMBUS A WINNER AT ALAN.

Spokane, Wash., May 7.—The interest in racing at Coeur d'Alene is increasing, as shown today when four more layers joined the ranks of the ring. The weather was of the summer variety and the racing spirited. Velie Forty took the first race. Rosa Reblee met with considerable interference on the far turn, but gamely came on and forced Velie Forty out at the end.

Canapa took the second from an ordinary band, drawing away from them in the last hundred yards. Nimbus furnished the surprise of the day by taking the fourth race at liberal odds.

William Pinkerton was a guest of the association here today. He was impressed with the magnitude of the Coeur d'Alene plant.

Jack Rose, Fred Frankel, Sam Korper and E. G. Martin were the new layers in line today.

Jockey Kirschbaum was suspended for three days by starter Dwyer. Jockey Corey received five days for disobedience at the post and jockey Frasch three days for rough riding in the fourth race.

TRIALS OF KING'S PLATE CANDIDATES.

Opinion Grows That Toronto Feature Winner Will Come from Dyment or Seagram Stable.

Come from Dyment or Seagram Stable.

Toronto, Ont., May 7.—The stage at which the King's Plate field begins to separate into those that have a chance and those that can safely be counted out—by all but their owners—has been reached. Less than two weeks remain for the completion of the preparation necessary to enable the horses to run a mile and a quarter in 2:10 or better. Some have demonstrated that, for them, that time will never arrive, but a sufficient number of the other kind remain to assure an interesting race. As good work and the bassure an interesting race. As good work and by Mr. Seagran's Rustlin's Succession was an interesting race. As good work and by Mr. Seagran's Rustlin's Succession was an interesting race. As good work and by Mr. Seagran's Rustlin's Succession was a sull by Mr. Seagran's Rustlin's Succession was a sull company with another Plater, the Platers galloping at his heels. Rockville's time was a quarter in :25%, half in :51, five-eighths in 1:04%, three-quarters in 1:18 and the mile in 1:47%. Rustling's mile was about 1:48. The other three Platers of the Waterloo stable. Head Sea. Longus and Purple China did an easy mile in 1:51, accompanied by the English horse, Rezant.

Mr. Gorman's Marybud went the Plate route in 219, 48%, 30 after the first mile, which was done in 1995. Shore did a mile gallop in 1:54. She has a doubtful nigh fore leg, and does her work the English way of the track, the right side to the rail. She pulled up soundly and trainer Phair is confident that she will be among the starters, and in the money, as she has been twice already.

Gold Bud, the reliance of the Davies stable for the Plate, was sent half a mile in 32%, three-quarters in 1:13%, a mile in 1:37%, mile and an eighth in 7:00 falls, and the mile and a quarter in 2:18%, for the last three-quarters she was accompanied by the part of the journey in 1:22 breaking in considerably behind the other mare.

Though the King's Plate is for maidens, and there are no winners of races in this year's list, many of the candidates have been to the post. The older division, in fact, includes some, such as Jane Shore, Havrock and Courtown II., that have been trained for and run in the Plate race itself. In future years the list will no doubt include many actual winners, as the conditions will allow the participation of horses that have won two-year-old races. An unusually large proportion of the Platers had some racing experience last season, no fewer than twelve of the present three-year-olds having been seen under colors, Eleven will go to the post for the first time on Woodbine's opening day. They are: Scaled Order, Calumny, Gold Bud, Porcupine, Late applicants for stable accommodation at Woodbine learn that the demand is such that King's Platers and Coronation Stake candidates were the busiest horses at Woodbine this morning. These events have $5,000 and $2,000 respectively in added money, and are for home-bred horses, the Coronation being for 2-year-olds, Now that two-year-old winners are still eligible for future King's Plates, there has been a marked increase in the entry for the Coronation and some smart young-sters will no doubt be seen in this race.

The track was damp and dead this morning and the neighboring lake was shronded in fog, though the land atmosphere was clear.

Among the youngsters the most noticeable work was Venus Urania (sister to St. Bass), quarter in 23%, and three-eighths in 36%. Hearts of Oak, 233% and 33%, pulling up the half in 50; Ondramida, half in 52; Corflambo, three-eighths in 38; Sarolta and Peter Doody, three-eighths in 38; Sarolta and Peter Doody, three-eighths in 52; Elfain and Bewickawa, three-eighths in 52; Elfain and Bewickawa, three-eighths in 52; Elfain and Bewickawa, three-eighths in 38%. The Platers that worked today were Marybud, a mile in 1:45%, and a mile and a quarter in 2:16%; Philis, mile in 1:46%, handily. Knowd beating Bontoi, a mile in 1:49%, all out.

J. N. Camden has repurchased from T. B. Cromwell for $1,000 the broodmare Hindoo Rose, dam of Heilos. She will be remated with Star Shoot, the sire of Helios. Hindoo Rose was sold at the Camden weeding-out sale last fall to W. P. Scully for $55 and Jr. Scully in turn sold her to T. B. Cromwell and Jr. O. Keene for $125.

STAKES FOR WHEELWRIGHT

J. N. CAMDEN'S KENTUCKY DERBY CANDI-DATE WINS THE CAMDEN HANDICAP.

Worth Works Mile and an Eighth with Adams Express, and Jockey Shilling Feels Confident His Employer's Horse Will Win the Derby.

Lexington, Ky., May 7.—This afternoon J. N. Camden's 3-year-old Wheelwright loomed up 28 a likely candidate for Kentucky Derby honors by an impressive victory in the Camden Handicap. Jabot landed in second place and Joe Morris was third. with Cherryola a distant trailer. The stake was worth $1,211 net to the winner in addition to a silver cup worth $250. Joe Morris was generally regarded as the probable winner, but after being held in reserve in the early running, failed to be a factor when the real racing began. The early pace was slow, with Wheelwright and Jabot dominating the running until the upper turn had been passed. Then Loftus and Jabot cut sharply across Wheel-wright and forced him to lose much ground. The Camden racer recovered this ground in the stretch and passed into the lead a furlong from the finish, where Byrne began easing up quickly and had Loftus been a little more alert he would have snatched the victory for Jabot.

About the biggest upset of the afternoon came in the closing dash, in which Tay Pay succumbed to Sir Catesby. The MacManus representative was looked upon as the best betting proposition of the day, but Sir Catesby took his measure as his rider pleased.

Poor riding was responsible for Yorkville's defeat by Pink Lady. The Bissell filly was lucky throughout and had the benefit of T. Koerner's riding skill. Rose of Jeddah showed a return to good form when she sprinted away from fair opposition in the opening dash.

The exodus of horsemen for Louisville began today when the advance guard, composed of the horses of W. G. Yanke, J. R. Wainwright, C. C. VanMeter and part of the strings owned by F. D. Weir, W. M. Wallace, and R. F. Carman, were shipped.

After the running of the Camden Handicap; trainer Taylor brought out H. C. Hallenbeck's pair of cracks, Worth and Adams Express. They were let down for a mile and an eighth work-out after a preliminary gallop, and ran the distance in 2:01%, finishing well in hand, with Worth in the lead. The fractionals were as follows: Quarter mile, :2

frainterred to Louisville tolliforow and world's final trial of one mile will be done on Thursday morning.

Shilling will go to Louisville with the Hallenbeck horses, and T. Koerner, on the call of his employer, Wayne Joplin, will leave for the Falls City tomorrow. Starter Cassidy suspended Byrne, Connor, C. Peak, W. W. Taylor and Dale for the remainder of the meeting.

The Camelen stable will leave for Louisville tomorrow morning.

Gallaher Brothers will turn out Rash and Toison d'Or at Thomas Piatt's farm tomorrow until fall.

J. C. Milam today sold to Dr. G. M. Miller, of Detroit, the two-year-olds Luther and Little Baker. The former is a brother to High Private and the latter is a brother to Lord Lovat.

George Odom will ship his crippled string of racers back to Louisville tomorrow.

Pink Lady came out of her race badly cut about the left hind leg and will have to be rested for some time.

Frank Clarkson's two-year-old half-brother to Boca Grande was brought in to Ed Murray from John D. Carr's farm today and will be taken to Toronto after this meeting.

Flash of Lightning (dam of Lady Lightning), foaled a chestnut colt by Marathon at Thomas Piatt's farm a day or so ago. The mare and foal are owned by Rube Varwig, of Cincinnati.

THE WHEATCROFT SALE IN AUSTRALIA.

The big band of American-bred horses and the English stallion St. Savin, shipped to Australia a few months back by I. H. Wheatcroft, were sold at Randwick lat in March, a few not changing hands. Details of sale have not been received, but it is known that those sold brought an aggregate of $\$SG.250$. London Sporting Life of April 24 says of the sale:

Details of _ae sale have not been received, but it is known that those sold brought an aggregate of $80,250. London Sporting Life of April 24 says of the sale:

"The gem of the collection was, of course, the St. Simon horse, St. Savin, who has yet to make his name as a stallion, but whose young stock show great promise. There was a buzz of admiration as St. Savin stepped into the arena. He is a magnificent specimen of the thoroughbred, perfect in quality.

"The bidding started at a thousand guineas, and rising by hundreds, was carried along to 3.000 down to the representative of a Queensland sports and is the owner of the Caulfield Cup Winner, Lady Medallist. Unless Australian judges are sally at was not kept in England. However, he is sure to Australia, for almost every son of St. Simon who as enongineus and the stud in the Commonwealth has been a conspicuous success, even though their racing records were very unpromising.

"The American-bred Cesarion, whose stock have done so extraordinarily well as two-year-olds on the American turf these last few seasons, did not make his reserve, the highest bid being one of a thousand guineas. Mr. Wheatcroft thereupon announced his intention of shipping the son of Fanstus back to America—a decision which indicates that his owner is prepared to re-establish his stud as soon as the outlook warrants his adopting that course. The total proceeds of the sale amounted to 17.259 guineas, which was not bad, all things considered. Neither the mares nor the yearlings were looking their best."

If all bettors would PLAY MY SELECTIONS ONLY the bookmaker would soon be forced to quit, as he is in the business for profit. In booking AGAINST MY SELEC-TIONS there is no profit. THE PLAYER GETS ALL THE PROFIT. SUBSCRIBE NOW and help drive the bookmaker out of business. TELEGRAMS SENT PREPAID. Eight or ten plays a month. A fair sized flat bet should win about $10,000 a year. TERMS: The winnings of a $5 bet on each selection to be sent to me the day after selection wins. A. BENTON 363 EDGECOMBE AVE., after selection wins.

I am offering the whole of Louisville meeting—one horse daily—for the nominal sum of $10. This ALSO includes "How to Beat the Mutuels," my own invention and never before on the market.

"How to Beat the Mutuels" bears the same relation to racing as did the art of handicapping, when it was first discovered. Possibly you KNOW how Grannan, "Pittsburg Phil" and others profited. Join the throng, be an early bird and get Collyer's "How to Beat the Mutuels." As I said before, join the throng. The whole of Louisville (May 11-28) for $10, with "How to Beat the Mutuels"—FREE.
